

Blue Skies Dreaming

Words and music by Jenica Rayne and Simon Kendall © 2004

saturday late afternoon
i'm lost in this moment
i've been blues skies dreaming
of salt water kisses
walking on the beach
the sun, the moon, the sky
the sand beneath my bare feet

do you believe in miracles?
do you believe in your life?
do you believe in love at first sight?
i do

in the space between time when i have forgotten all that i've claimed as mine weeping willows wave hello weeping fields of feathered gold i am the wind
i am the water

do you believe in love at first sight?

i'm lost in this moment
walking on the beach

i do
