

Down On Me

Words and music by Jenica Rayne © 1999

alone on this path
i've traced
by choice or fate
it's dragged me
to my knees
i keep a guarded shell that i crawled to
when i fell
in the river
that swallowed me

but this river
it's winding so fast
i can't breathe
my heart won't last
i'm not the pillar
that you perceive
i'm cold and
i'm shivering and
it's raining
down on me
i've been down on me
i'm down on me

as i watch the day unfold i open up the book to my soul i'm lost in this mystery i'd run but i can't hide cause the face that i see is mine in the mirror
she stares back at me

from the river
that's winding so fast
i can't breathe
my heart won't last
i thought i'd be

i'm cold and
i'm shivering and
it's raining
i've been down on me
i'm down on me

from my window ledge
slivered moonlight
it touches my head
i've been cast
in some sort of weird spell deeper
deeper
deeper
i fell

just wake me up
in the morning
wake me up
before the break of dawn
i can't believe that
you're gone

still can't believe that
you're gone
you're gone
you're gone
you're gone
