

The People's Time

Words and music by Jenica Rayne and Simon Kendall © 2004

i am not blind
i can see just fine there's something going down here behind a thin white lie disguised as justice but they're hooked on greed and they take and take and take until you bleed

stand up
stand up
stand up and be counted stand up in the name of love it's the people's time

is everything ok who keeps changing the rules we can sit back and watch the race place bets on our fate i've been watching the news i see it on the streets we're obsessed with what we fear we've turned it into hate

stand up

this is not a game to sideline and cheer since when did we lose our minds and buy into fear there's a bigger picture let's call it love
we need a common unity
to rise above

stand up
the people's time to rise and be heard it's time for us to heal this world
