

Time is a Key

Words and music by Jenica Rayne © 2014

hello darlin'
take your shoes off
i'll be there you had a long ride under the prairie sky it's great to see you again and you invite me in and we talk like old friends grab each other toes from time to time laugh hey do you remember when?

you've got a new life now
you got a new car
you've got a new house
a new job
you've got new life
with your new wife

oh i like her too
she's really lucky to have you...

the story is told and we're not that far from old love and laughter forever after the heart it's always home and the rules are the same this is everybody's game time's elusive
yet it's always on and there's no turning back when it's gone

I'm not sayin' mistake There's nothin that I lack I left in the first place Not looking back

with your new wife

it's sometimes the enemy sometimes it flies like wings through the sky and then we are left with memories...
