

Abstract Art

Words and music by Jenica Rayne © 1999

you tilt your wing your gliding through the sky you make it look so easy to fly red and yellow and blue swirling clouds I love you as you paint my view now I'm watching
through my window framed with light as you trace my soul with abstract flight

ou ou ou ou ou ou

I've been wondering I've been dreaming about my life the abstract forms that I painted I only viewed in black and white who would have thought who could trace
this finger painted plot of my heart it's like

it's taken so many years to break the stable of my fears you're an open book with me and I'm a closed short story you tilt your wings you're gliding through the sky, you make it look so easy to say goodbye
