

Love Letter

Words and music by Jenica Rayne © 1999

i'm sorry about that
well i miss you that's a fact but the years have gone by like tears i've cried in the darkness

all alone
this shell where I hide it's been my disguise

i keep it from everyone
i never said i love you we'll i never loved myself now i've lost all of my resistance and my stubborn sense of self i can't blame you that you left me i hope this letter finds you happy i know nothing of your life now just our past but if time has a way of healing could you take a chance and write me back

love mom

love mom
